

Week 5

admire

Many people admire Nelson Mandela. They like his work very much.

alone

Do you like to study alone or with friends?

angry

She is angry because her roommate never washes the dishes.

army

The army is fighting a war.

attention

Please listen to your teacher. Pay attention to him.

band

U2 is a famous band from Ireland.

beak

A bird does not have lips. It has a beak.

birth

His wife gave birth to a baby boy last night.

bow

In Asia, People bow to say hello.

bright

The sun is very bright today. You will need sunglasses.

calm

Do not become nervous before the test. A calm student gets better grades.

castle

Some kings and queens live in castles.

chest

The pirates put the jewelry and gold coins in the treasure chest and locked it up. The student bought a chest of drawers to put her clothes in.

clear

On a clear morning, you can see for miles. On a morning when the air is full of smog, you cannot even see 5 miles away.

club

It is a good idea to join a university club that is involved in something you are interested in. It is a good way to make friends and learn things at the same time.

composition

In Writing Class, you learn to write a composition with a good introduction, body paragraphs and a conclusion.

conversation

The conversation at the next table was very interesting. I tried to hear what they were saying.

court

A basketball court has a center line, a free-throw line, side-lines, and a basket at each end. A judge works in a legal court.

curious

Cats are very curious animals. They are always looking around for some new thing to discover.

decide

I can't decide which sweater to wear, the pink one or the blue one.

destruction

A tornado can cause a lot of destruction. It can take large trees out of the ground and carry them far away. It can take the roof off of a house. It can pick up cars and carry them away, too.

dine

Where is your favorite place to dine near campus? Do you eat in the cafeteria, or at a local restaurant?

disease

AIDS is one disease that health care workers have to be careful of. They must wear rubber gloves to protect themselves from the disease.

dream

At night, people dream while they sleep.

elsewhere

I don't like this restaurant. Let's eat elsewhere.

equal

My grade and your grade are equal. We both have 90 percent.

everywhere

I looked everywhere for my keys, but I didn't find them.

factory

People build cars in a factory.

failure

He is a failure. He did not finish school. He does not have a job. He does not do anything well.

feather

After the birds flew away, I found a beautiful feather.

flat

It is easy to ride a bicycle on a flat road.

force

You can't force someone to love you.

fresh

I don't like canned or frozen peas. I like fresh peas.

gather

The students gather in Room 102 for their History class.

greet

Americans say "Hi! How are you?" to greet their friends.

handle

Use the handle to open the door.

hate

The young child hates to eat vegetables.

history

I read about WWII in my history book.

human

A human can not breathe under water.

ill

The baby is ill. We have to go to the doctor.

inn

We will stay at small inns when we travel in Europe.

iron

Be careful! The iron is very hot.

kick

The soccer player kicked a goal and won the game.

laugh

We laughed of the funny joke.

length

The snake was very long. Its length was more than 4 feet.

list

You must learn a long list of vocabulary words.

lose

The New York Yankees don't lose many baseball games.

main

The fog was the main cause of the car accident.

medical

The patient called 911 to get medical help.

mild

The weather today is mild. It is clear and 70 degrees F.

most

Most international students like to make American friends.

native

Bluebonnets are native flowers of Texas.

noise

The firecracker made a loud noise.

obey

Children must obey their parents.

opinion

In my opinion, dogs are better pets than cats.

pad

You can use this pad of paper to take notes.

path

The new bike path is for bicycles not motorcycles.

permit

IELT does not permit students to eat in the lab.

pipe

The old man sat in his chair smoking his pipe.

point

The main idea is the most important point of the reading.

powder

If you put powder in your shoes, your feet will stay dry.

print

You must print your name clearly in capital letters.

promise

Kayo promised her parents that she would call them every week.

quart

Did you know that 4 cups equals one quart?

rate

Children and older people (senior citizens) usually pay a lower rate for movie tickets. They get a discount.

record

He recorded himself speaking English so he could improve his pronunciation.

respect

It's very important to respect our parents and teachers.

roast

Yi-Fang is cooking roast chicken in the oven. It smells wonderful.

rub

Maxine rubbed her husband's shoulders because he was tense. It was a relaxing massage.

salesman

A salesman will try to sell you something, such as a car.

scrape

My daughter fell down and scraped her knee.

seldom

I seldom eat lobster because it is very expensive.

severe

The weather was severe. There were bad storms and strong winds.

shape

The doctor says that my grandfather's condition is good. He is in good shape.

shine

The sun shines brightest at noon.

since

Since I was sick, I did not go to school.

smooth

The water is smooth. The boat can move easily.

sometime

We can go to the movie sometime next week. We can go any day.

spill

The student spilled his coffee. The coffee got on his papers.

stay

The students are staying in the classroom at lunch. The teacher is helping them.

strange

That movie is strange. It is very unusual.

stripe

Her shirt is pretty. It has blue and white stripes.

supply

Lake Lewisville supplies the water for the city of Denton.

tap

I hear a quiet knock on the door. It is a tap on the door.

thick

This pizza is not thin. It is thick and has lots of good things on it.

tight

The child needs new shoes. Her shoes are too small, and they are tight.

top

The people walked from the bottom of the hill to the top.

treasure

Her mother's letters are important to her. They are her treasure.

twist

Please twist the door knob, and open the door.

valley

A valley is between two mountains.

war

People want to have peace, not war.

weed

My mother does not like weeds in her flower garden.

whisper

The child whispered her name in the teacher's ear, and only the teacher could hear it.

wipe

Please wipe the dirty table, so it will be clean.

worm

Worms are bugs that do not have legs.

Top